I request by PM that we take this off line. I also asked you for your phone number so keep responding publically, Why?

Chap, I responded to you in PM. The answer I got is that between you and year. One year, lets all let that soak in. It is not just some monster buck c deer in only one year. I was also told "in private" that you think there is a Bashing" Why don't you say that in public, six deer, PB Crisis, theme of "P here.

I honestly don't think I can respond any better to this response than to sha passion about it.

Would you really like to know why I am so passionate about it? Because I know we ar rules, ONLY, a three inch miss. That's it. No more. You seem to disregard this rule. only stirs more passion within me. It show to me that it is you who is in crisis, not Am well.

Its downright easy to miss by 3" at 120 yards in a crosswind. Awfully easy. Its easy t can't hit a 6" pie plate in the conditions that you are shooting in, please don't take the isn't what I was taught. I have to say, you are going to lose more deer if you don't res have 95% confidence you will miss by no more than 3"

I've grown very weary of this so I'm not commenting further on it.

Chap, I responded to you in PM. The answer I got is that between you and your son, one year. One year, lets all let that soak in. It is not just some monster buck of a life maiming of six deer in only one year. I was also told "in private" that you think there are on a theme of "PB Bashing" Why don't you say that in public, six deer, PB Crisis, t context to your posts here.

I honestly don't think I can respond any better to this response than to share my coore passion about it.

Would you really like to know why I am so passionate about it? Because I know we a traditional set of rules, ONLY, a three inch miss. That's it. No more. You seem to di rule. To read you wounded 6 deer only stirs more passion within me. It show to me you who is in crisis, not America, and you are in denial as well.

Its downright easy to miss by 3" at 120 yards in a crosswind. Awfully easy. Its easy brisket or guts. If you can't hit a 6" pie plate in the conditions that you are shooting don't take the shot. That kind of hunting isn't what I was taught. I have to say, you lose more deer if you don't resolve to only take shots you have 95% confidence you no more than 3"

I've grown very weary of this so I'm not commenting further on it.

Bottom line, you think it was me. I think it was the PBs. I know of the 3" time with bow, muzzie, FL and rifle. I have had a very bad experience with getting the animal for for "America's Favorite Bullet". I know why now, the myself from you. I do not take shots that I am not sure of 100% of time, walk. I have many many times let bucks go that I didn't have a good shot judgement shots is NOT accurate. I was UNAWARE of the reputation of PB push them with 3 pellets, so am I unethical or immoral for being unaware? I am weary of defending myself. Chap heres those pics. The two upper left bullets are 385 grain great plains bullets, the one of open is the bullet i pulled from a doe i shot at 20yards through the shoulders and found inside shoulder. The next one to the right is a log i shot at, went in a total of 5 inchs. Th at the lake along with a box full of other flint i picked up, after trimming it, that will be u that sucker showers sparks like crazy. To the right of the flint, are 2 power belts, 295 gr flintlock with 70 grains fffg blackpowder at 25 yards, The whole bullet is the one that we over a foot long and fresh cut pinion. The other powerbelt next to it, is one that didnt go 11inchs. And the little bastard with the star shaped hollow point is the 250 grain saborto What do u guys think of shooting it without the plastic skirt? i want to put it to good use again.

my buck this year was shot with powerbelt 295 hollow point,at 20 yds, behind should t/c hawkins flintlock,80 grs.2f.rmc v-peep,bullet went right thru and out the otherside hit rib ,went right between ..

How far did he go Sproulman?

he went right down,then i re-loaded..boy, it was nice and quick to reload a ball..you know,i dont know why but i feel sorry for buck after i shot him..

i dont before i do it but after, i do..i guess i feel for deer, i always did..

dad raised me to be hunter,protect the future deer so kids coming along ha gone..now PGC wants a kid to be proud of shooting a doe/fawn..

well,its not working, kids i am talking too DONT want doe/fawn,they want t harrisburg would stop this shooting of the small buck and button bucks, a k he could talk about at camp or school or at work in future..

sorry i got of topic AGAIN..

Its always a bonus when they don't suffer any. I am affected the same way me it is natural to feel that way and that it is in the use of the animal we gi remember him as I gut a deer and from that point in time forward I'm smili
